

§ 18.12

for losses, damages, or judgments and expenses on account of personal injury, death or property damage or claims for personal injury, death, or property damage of any nature whatsoever and by whomsoever made arising out of the activities of the lessee, his employees, subcontractors, sublessees, or agents under the lease.

(f) No lease shall provide the lessee a preference right of future leases.

(g) The lessee is responsible for any taxes and assessments imposed by Federal, State, and local agencies on lessee-owned property and interests.

(h) The lessee shall comply with local applicable ordinances, codes, and zoning requirements.

§ 18.12 Ownership of improvements.

(a) Capital improvements made to existing government-owned structures by the lessee or additional structures placed on the government-owned land by the lessee are the property of the United States. No rights for compensation of any nature exist for such property at the termination or expiration of the lease except as specified in the lease.

(b) Furniture, trade fixtures, chattel, and other personal property defined in the lease shall remain the property of the lessee upon termination or expiration of the lease and shall be removed within a reasonable time specified in the lease.

§ 18.13 Exchanges for historic property.

(a) After consultation with the Advisory Council on Historic Preservation, the Secretary, consistent with other legal requirements or other legal authorities, may exchange any property owned by the United States of America under his administration for any non-federally owned historic property located within the authorized boundaries of an existing unit of the National Park System, if he has determined that such exchange will adequately ensure preservation of the historic property and subject to the requirements of § 18.3 of this part.

(b) The exchange of the two properties must be on the basis of approximately equal fair market value established by the approved appraisal reports of the agency. The Secretary may accept cash from or pay cash to the grantor in an exchange, in order to equalize the values of the properties exchanged.

(c) Title to the non-Federal property to be received in exchange must be free and clear of encumbrances and/or liens.

(d) Prior to consummation of any exchange, the Secretary shall evaluate the Federal land to be exchanged, and shall reserve such interests as necessary to protect the purposes for which the unit of the National Park System was established. The grantor of property to the Federal Government may reserve only such rights as are compatible with the purposes for which it is being acquired as determined by the Secretary. Appraisal of fair market values must reflect any reservations or restrictions.
